What is the Student Services and Amenities Fee (SSAF)?

In 2012, The University of Melbourne introduced the Student Services and Amenities Fee (SSAF), in compliance with the Australian Government's Higher Education Legislation, to support and provide a wide range of services and amenities for students, and to support student-focused initiatives.

All students pay this compulsory fee annually. The amount you pay depends on your study load (full time or part-time).

Vision

The University is committed to understanding and meeting the needs of a diverse student population, and ensuring that all have an experience of lasting quality and enrichment. SSAF funds enable a wide range of initiatives, determined in collaboration with students, in support of this commitment.

What can SSAF be spent on?

The Higher Education Legislation stipulates that SSAF funds can be spent on the following:

SSAF Grant Payment

For staff applicants and staff-led projects:

- University staff and departments should note grant funding, when received, is considered operating (internally transferred) income and therefore must be fully expensed in the same calendar year in which the funding was received. Unspent funds (staff only) in the same calendar year will be recalled by the University's Finance Team in accordance with the University's finance and accounting policy; and then redistributed in January the following year. The amount will need to be noted in the Progress Report prior to the 30 November calendar year cut-off.
- If University staff wish to receive grant funds in 2 instalments, applicants are required to submit a budget outlining funds to be expended in Q3&4 (calendar year funds are
